Treasurer's Report

- balance $9,147

Administrator's Report

- Staff is very busy preparing for remote learning. Remote learning will keep same schedules as current school schedule. Despite all the challenges this year, their spirits have been very positive
- have only had 2 quarantined classes
- EPR's coming up, teachers preparing
- iReady diagnostics will have to be remote the first week of Dec.
- 22 students coming back to the school from eLearning in Jan. 5-6 new students coming from homeschool or Charter schools. Did not receive funding for them but happy to welcome them.
- creating the UIP- difficult since there was no testing last year, creating goals using old stats

2020-2021 Goals

- PSP Grants
- save funds for potentially more budget cuts
- Teacher appreciation and morale

2020-2021 Events and Fundraisers

- Fun Run- did Read4Funds this year, raised $7,456. Goal next year to do Run, dates: 9/14 assembly, 9/21 Run, 9/28 pledges due, 10/5 prize day
- Teacher Conference Dinners- provided Chick-Fil-A burritos, juice and cookies on 10/6. Subway sandwiches, chips and soda on 10/8 for ~75 staff
- PSP Memberships and Yearbooks -will start sales in January, check into using schoolbucks
- King Soopers Loyalty - earning about a thousand each quarter, awesome!
- Butter Braids - raised ~3,400. Will be delivered 11/18. Christina and Lacey to help organize outside to send into teachers
- Spirit Wear -ongoing
- American Furniture Warehouse- ongoing, raised $172 last year. Need to choose Rally time, potentially Black Friday?

- Virtual Events- ways to do virtual events to increase school spirit and social aspect we're missing this year. Virtual games night??

Volunteer needs

- PSP secretary
- Teacher Appreciation
- Teacher conference dinners

Grants

- No new Grants
- Approved through email 10/23: Secret Stories requested by Caitlyn Weyhrich. Phonics coding tool for 1st grade classrooms and ESL k-2nd grade. $270

Open Discussion

- no staff holiday party this year. PSP will provide food for "Fill the Fridge Friday" on 12/4 for all staff
- If staff creates individual Amazon Wishlists, PSP will send out to families that wish to send a gift to a staff member
